

It is crucial and legally prescribed that the Public Broadcaster supply people with unbiased information in the run-up and during the Parliamentary elections 2020.

As the race is gaining momentum, the stronger our responsibility to ensure parity of the contestant parties.

The Board of the Public Broadcaster pledges to monitor on a daily basis the First Channel political programs before and on the Election Day.

The Board will be occasionally broadcasting the assessment results of our information policy and no later than two weeks after the polling day the final evaluation of the aforesaid translated into the statistical data.

The Board of Trustees of the Public Broadcaster believes that well-grounded assessment of the Broadcaster's activities during Parliamentary Elections will be conducive to higher degree impartiality and transparency.